Little, Brown. 1 Cloth(s), 1996. hard. Book Condition: New. One of the great moral and political leaders of our time, Nelson Mandela endured a 27-year prison sentence for sabotage, but his untiring fight against racial oppression in South Africa eventually won him the presidency of his country. This large-format adaptation of Mandela's frank and inspiring memoir Long Walk to Freedom which serves as a de facto history of his nation in the 20th century is accompanied by more than 200 color and black and white photographs. The photogenic Nobel laureate is shown at various phases of his career, along with vivid images that bring home the injustice and the horror of apartheid-era South Africa. "The pictures don't just illustrate the historical account, they extend it. South Africa's great photographers, including Peter Magubane, Jurgen Schadeburg, and many more, document the events in their country. They capture the daily and the cataclysmic: what it has been like for those who live there, blacks and whites, separate and unequal for so long. The famous images are here (children carrying the body of Hector Peterson after the 1976 Soweto uprising; Mandela with his arm raised in triumph on his release from prison), but some pictures are new, published here for the first time." Booklist 208.
