Accountability Office, 2009 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)318076149 Subject: Veterinarians -- Supply and demand -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 6 evaluating progress toward workforce goals. However, federal agencies have for years lacked a strategic approach to workforce management. Consequently, since 2001, we have identified human capital management 7 as a high-risk area needing urgent attention and transformation. OPM provides information and guidance on a wide range of strategies that departments and agencies can use to help strategically plan for and maintain a workforce sufficient to accomplish their missions. This includes standard retention and recruitment payments, such as recruitment incentives and student loan repayments. OPM can also authorize departments to use additional strategies to address workforce shortage situations should standard strategies prove insufficient. For example, OPM can approve higher salaries for individual positions in an occupation if the agency has difficulty staffing a position requiring an extremely high level of expertise that is critical to the agency's successful accomplishment of an important mission. In addition to maintaining a workforce sufficient for routine functions, departments and...
