Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from God Revealing His Truth, Vol. 1: Through Patriarch and Prophet, Intermediate Department, First Year The Westminster Textbooks of Religious Education are planned to meet the needs of churches seeking to unify their educational program. The informational, devotional, and expressional phases of religious education have been, heretofore, to a large extent, independent of one another. This lack of correlation has been detrimental to educational efficiency. Time and effort have been lost through duplication. Valuable information has failed to register itself in conduct because of the lack of suitable opportunities for expression. Many of our churches have been feeling their way toward better educational standards. It is in response to the requests and needs of these churches that this series of lessons have been undertaken. These textbooks are planned for church schools having a week-day session, a Sunday session, and an expressional session meeting either on Sunday or on a week day. An absolute differentiation of the three phases of the educative process is neither possible nor desirable. The lessons are so arranged, however, that the week-day session is mainly informational, the Sunday session more largely devotional, and the third session of the week largely expressional. Since the course is a unity, it is not necessarily confined to the plan suggested. It would be equally suited to a week-day church school system having three sessions a week and unrelated to the Sunday-school program of the community. The course could be adjusted to any local condition, provided the sequence of the lessons were maintained. Forty-two lessons of three sections each are provided for each grade or year.
