They must both be highly interesting. I asked Mr. Clifford for seeds for my garden, but he has sent me ores, fossils, and dissertations. Pray recommend me to your friend when you have an opportunity. I have built a stove, which I wish to furnish in the spring. The anatomical theatre is also finished, and there have been many dissections in it this winter. If you fix your residence in Sweden, pray collect some of your Mosses, and north-country plants. You shall have Lichens, Mosses, and Hercynian plants, if you please, in return. Pray give my compliments to my old friend Rosen, though I am not personally known to him. He has now attained a very advantageous appointment. I was particularly acquainted with a surgeon named Ribbius, the son of your king s physician. If I...
