

Conducting the Home Visit in Child Protection

By Joanna Nicolas

OPEN UNIVERSITY PRESS, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New ed.. 220 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is an immensely readable and engaging book, which would have been an enormous resource for me as a practitioner and as a manager of social workers, earlier on in my career. It is written in a succinct, authentic, and clear style with practical examples throughout .Joanna Nicolas brings her commitment to learning from practice alive in this book, drawing on personal examples. Her clarity on issues, such as the legal position of social workers, is excellent. Penny Thompson, Chief Executive of the General Social Care Council (GSCC) For anyone immersed in child protection, there is a requirement to be aware, alert and assertive and to be inquisitive, intrigued, inquiring and imaginative about what children are experiencing when you are not there. These are the powerful messages from this strongly practice-focussed text with its emphasis on how to do it . There is clear guidance, and powerful examples, for those still learning their craft and significant reminders for those who are more experienced. There is no more important work than protecting very vulnerable...
