While every industry and every profession requires specific expertise, the truth is that the business of business is relatively simple. For the past seven years, Geoffrey James has written a daily blog that s become one of the most popular business-focused destinations on the web. In BUSINESS WITHOUT THE BULLSH T, readers will learn surprising but tried-and-true secrets about being an extraordinary boss, about coping with annoying coworkers, and navigating the thorny problems that recur in every workplace. TIPS FROM BUSINESS WITHOUT THE BULLSH T: Long work hours mean less work gets done. Multiple studies reveal that working 60 rather than 40 hours a week makes you slightly more productive but only for a little while. After about three weeks, people get burned out, get sick and go absent, and start making avoidable errors. What every boss wants from you. From your boss s perspective your real job is to make the boss successful. There are no exceptions to this rule. Why your resume is your enemy. Only write a resume after you re talking to people inside the hiring firm. Then, customize it to match what you ve discovered that they really want.
