D. degree could become members. Later, in June, 1887, Dr. N. S. Davis, Dr. W. W. Allport and myself drew up the following: Resolved, That the regular graduate of such dental and oral schools and colleges as require of their students a standard of preliminary or general education and a term of professional study equal to the best class of the medical colleges of this country, and embrace in their curriculum all the fundamental branches of medicine, differing by substituting practical and clinical instruction in dental and oral medicine and surgery, be recognized as members of the regular profession of medicine and eligible to membership in this Association, on the same conditions and subject to the same regulations as other members. While this practically recognized the D. D. S. degree, yet the wording of this resolution was so ambiguous that every year the officers of the Section had more or less trouble in admitting members. Thus at Denver, for some reason unknown to the writer, an edict was issued before the meeting that only those holding the M. D. degree could become members; some thirty members were thus lost the Association. This was unintentional, as it was admitted by the secretary and treasurer after the meeting to have been a mistake. The Section has drifted along under the resolution until 1901, when a new constitution and by-laws were adopted which placed our Section to a greater disadvantage. In the meantime, the...
