You can't even talk to them. They don't want to hear it. So here's what you do: Most people who do not believe in God believe in evolution. Show them that evolution cannot possibly explain everything. While there can be no actual proof of God (short of seeing Him in person some day), it IS possible to disprove evolution. Find a few counterexamples, make your friends reconsider their basic assumptions, and they may reconsider the possibility of God. As Spock said on Star Trek, if you eliminate the impossible, then whatever remains, however improbable, must be the truth. For example... Ask your friend why giraffes are so tall. This is the evolutionists' centerpiece example in their narrative. They'll probably answer, "Because taller giraffes were able to get to the high leaves during a drought. Survival of the fittest." This book gives TEN reasons why that answer does NOT explain why giraffes are so tall. The most compelling one is this: Being tall did NOT give an advantage! A short...

Absolutely among the best books I have possibly gone through. I have gone through it and that I am certain that I am going to go through it once again in the future. I am just delighted to tell you that this is basically the finest book I have ever gone through within my personal existence and could be the finest book for ever.
