

Destructive Emotions: A Scientific Dialogue with the Dalai Lama

By Daniel Goleman

Bantam. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 448 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. Why do seemingly rational, intelligent people commit acts of cruelty and violence? What are the root causes of destructive behavior? How can we control the emotions that drive these impulses? Can we learn to live at peace with ourselves and others? Imagine sitting with the Dalai Lama in his private meeting room with a small group of world-class scientists and philosophers. The talk is lively and fascinating as these leading minds grapple with age-old questions of compelling contemporary urgency. Daniel Goleman, the internationally bestselling author of Emotional Intelligence, provides the illuminating commentary and reports on the breakthrough research this historic gathering inspired. Destructive Emotions—Buddhist philosophy tells us that all personal unhappiness and interpersonal conflict lie in the three poisons: craving, anger, and delusion. It also provides antidotes of astonishing psychological sophistication—which are now being confirmed by modern neuroscience. With new high-tech devices, scientists can peer inside the brain centers that calm the inner storms of rage and fear. They also can demonstrate that awareness-training strategies such as meditation strengthen emotional stability and greatly enhance our positive moods. The distinguished panel members report these recent findings and debate an exhilarating range of other topics:...
