Our shame and disgrace will be increased, if we call to mind that our enemies are expelled from almost all the Islands of the Mediterranean, if that Crete too is taken, and only Candia has not been attempted, nor felt the force of the Ottoman sword, whose edge penetrates to the very soul of an enemy If you say this City is strong, and fortified by nature and art, know, the Ottoman courage and force are stronger, before which I have seen castles lofty as the skies tall to the ground. For this cause, if you are against as faulting the city, and despair of success, when it is the refuge of pirates and magazine of robberies, it will be deemed the same thing as if you advised a peace with the Venetians, and a resignation...
